ARC Theatre

This week, Arc Theatre came to perform for our Year 5 and 6 students. Arc used dynamic, live theatre to explore and challenge hate crime and extremism and build stronger communities. The students loved watching the play and were praised for being a brilliant audience - well done Year 5 and 6!

Kew Gardens

Year 4 visited Kew Gardens to explore the different plants that is found around the world. Linking to their Amazon Rainforest topic in Geography, the children explored a rainforest glasshouse to find out further information about the plants, temperature and wildlife.

History poster Competition

Last term New City celebrated European Heritage. As part of our celebrations we held a competition, where the pupils could create a poster about a historical figure from European history. The three runners-up were Killian (2P), Madiha (4B) and Inaaya (6C). The winner was Isabella (2P), who painted a portrait of Queen Elizabeth II.
