

SEND Offer 2023 -2024

All pupils will access: <ul style="list-style-type: none">High quality teaching and learningA curriculum that is varied to support individual progressReasonable adjustments to the environment and equipment for pupils with disabilitiesAssessment for learningPersonalised target settingAfter school clubs and educational visitsAccess to careers advice	Pupils with additional learning needs will access: <ul style="list-style-type: none">Individualised target settingTargeted interventions and support matched to need delivered by teachersPersonalised progress tracking and assessment of needFlexible working groupsAdditional adult support for specific tasksAdditional parental communication and guidance.Individualised homework to support key targetsSupport from Learning Mentor or School Counsellor as needed
Pupils with identified SEND will have: <ul style="list-style-type: none">An adjusted timetable to include all aspects of their specific learning needsA curriculum that is adapted to individual needsAccess to evidence-based specialist programmesAccess to some specialist services and therapistsHigh levels of shared adult support and small group workingEnhanced access to Speech and Language TherapyReasonable adjustments for pupils where neededAccess to behavioural support services, counselling and mentoring	Pupils with more complex/high levels needs will access: <ul style="list-style-type: none">Specialist SEN teacher for quality first teaching and interventionPersonalised timetable, Individual targets and continuous monitoring and recording of progressSpecialist and research-based interventionsHigh quality supporting adults that are skilled in delivering specialist programmesAccess to specialist services and therapistsOpportunities for Speech and Language Therapy and occupational therapyFor parents: - daily communication, two review meetings, parent's evenings, coffee mornings and person-centred annual reviews